

Introducing the A. T. Kearney team

Team present today

Dr. Bernhard Hartmann
Partner

Summary of experience

- 23 years of consulting and industry experience in O&G
- Ph.D. in Petroleum Geology
- Leader of A. T. Kearney Saudi Aramco account team

Areas of expertise

- Led the unconventional Gas Operational Excellence initiative for Saudi Aramco UREDD
- Led the Unconventional Gas Supply chain strategy and organizational design for Saudi Aramco UREDD
- Led study on unconventional fuels in China for an oil major
- Developed several market entry strategy projects into China for large O&G players
- Led market assessments, benchmarks and feasibility studies for O&G companies in Asia

Energy and Process Industries
Middle East - KSA

Brian Forbes
Partner

Summary of experience

- Experienced in operational improvements in onshore and offshore environments
- Experience with Super Majors and Independents in both new and mature fields across asset types unconventional, offshore, and arctic)

Areas of expertise

- Led a major turn-around of pressure pumping North American operations, in response to changing operating model in shale gas
- Managed complex supply chain issues to enhance service delivery
- Enhanced well and reservoir management practices
- Led efficiency improvement projects for unconventional gas exploration across several assets/ regions

Energy and Process Industries
North America - Houston